

Leonard Cain Medical Scholarship Hoover Endowed Medical Scholarship

Information:

Dr. Leonard Cain Medical Scholarship and the Hoover Endowed Medical Scholarship has been established to provide financial assistance to students who are motivated to pursue higher education in the medical field. Scholarship awards shall be used towards tuition and expenses for medically oriented classes and programs.

Applicants will be chosen for an annual, renewable scholarship in amounts from $500 to $3000 each year for four years dependent upon the scholarship committee's yearly evaluations. After the first award, a grade point average of 3.0 per year will be expected. Funds must be used within the next school year (the fall semester) following the grant of scholarship, or it will be forfeited by the recipient, unless a delay is approved by the scholarship committee.

Each application will be given consideration with regard to scholastic standing, character, desire to obtain a college education, and economic need without regard to race, creed, color, sex or religious beliefs. Information received from scholarship applicants is considered to be confidential and will not be disclosed.

Process:

The scholarship committees have established the process of application listed below. Applicants will need to submit a completed Student Scholarship Application, which can be found online at www.onwardfoundation.org.

Applicants must complete each blank in the application form. Supporting documentation is required for the following:

- Transcript with current college entrance examination scores
- Two letters of reference from a teacher, counselor, or employer
- Documentation of high school and/or community activities or service
- A written essay that describes educational objectives and financial need

Once completed, applications may be submitted via regular mail, fax, or email with all attachments. Scholarship applications must be received on or before April 1 each year. The scholarship committee will make its final decisions and send letters of award confirmation by May 1 each year. Letters of award confirmation will describe administrative details of the awards.

Applications that are hand written, incomplete, or missing requested documentation will not be accepted.
